

PENNANT WINNERS ALL SET FOR GAME

New York, Oct. 4.—The Brooklyn Nationals and the Cleveland Americans will open their world's series battle for the 1920 championship at Ebbets Field tomorrow afternoon, weather permitting.

Twinkling stars in a cloudless sky early weather with moderate winds. But a fairly heavy windstorm came on at the close of the day, and when asked to explain the weather man said the storm was due to low atmospheric pressure and that it would be clear all through tomorrow morning.

The playing field of the Brooklyn park has been maintained for the last time and every reserved seat for the four games for which the Brooklyn club printed reserve coupons.

The Brooklyn players, winners of the National League pennant, are resting tonight preparatory to encountering the rush of the Cleveland club, which is in this city early tomorrow morning.

Manager Robinson and every member of the Brooklyn team express firm belief in their ability to defeat their American League rivals while Tris Speaker and his teammates hold the opinion that the world series banner will be hoisted next spring in the Cleveland park.

Arrangements and setting for the series of 1920 will differ greatly from those which have already made baseball history. It is expected to be furnished by the spectators. Their attitude toward the baseball classic and the players who participate in the struggle is an angle which cannot be forecast.

General opinion among close followers of the game is to the effect that the thousands who will fill Ebbets Field tomorrow will be perhaps more observant and critical in their comment upon the play and beyond that, it was said by baseball enthusiasts, the recent exposure of gambling a year ago will not affect the popularity of the series unless some unfortunate occurrence should arouse suspicion in the minds of the fans.

Certainly the climax of the baseball season has shown no less of interest so far as the fans of Greater New York are concerned. Every reserved seat at the Brooklyn park has been sold at the series. On Sunday President Charles H. Ebbets, stated that he had been obliged to return more than $60,000 in checks and currency to those who had hoped to purchase seats for the four games for which the Brooklyn club printed reserve coupons.

Those in charge of the press stands reported that at noon today more than four hundred applications were on file from newspaper writers in all parts of the country. About three hundred similar requests were received during the series between Brooklyn and Boston in 1918.

The sale of unserved seats in the field stands and bleachers began at 10 o'clock this morning. Announcement was made yesterday of the plan to sell the seats today and as a result a line of fans was formed several hours before the time set for opening the sale. A woman had the honor position at the head of the line. When asked how early she had come she replied:

"Early enough to get first place in line."

These seats sold at $2 for the field stands and $1 for the bleachers, plus the war tax. Purchasers were permitted to buy seats for any one or all of the games to be played at Ebbets field. It was estimated that with all seats sold and all available standing room occupied approximately 26,000 persons would be enabled to see the games.

Betting on the series opened here today with the Cleveland combination a favorite over Brooklyn. Curb market and sporting resorts placed the odds at 5 to 5 on the Indians and reported several wagers averaging a thousand dollars at these figures.

It was stated there was considerable betting for the Brooklyn team but that those who would wager on the superlative desired 7 to 5 for their money and refused to accept the 6 to 5 odds offered. Betting commissions offered even money on the result of tomorrow's game leaving the wagers make his own choice between Brooklyn and Cleveland.

The standard bearers of the American League are expected to arrive here from Cleveland early tomorrow morning. In addition to Manager Speaker and his fellow players there will be a large party of newspaper writers and fans accompanying the team. Owing to the closeness of the American league race, which was not clinched by the Indians until Saturday, the American Leaguers will have no opportunity for preliminary practice at Ebbets field until they appear there tomorrow about noon.

This cannot fail to be a handicap to them for the Brooklyn park with its short right field backed by a concrete wall makes a position difficult to play until the fielder becomes accustomed to the angle at which a hard hit ball caroms off the wall. Proper judgment on such a hit frequently means the difference between a single and a double. A further advantage rests with the Brooklyn team in that the players have had a longer period to rest between the winning of the pennant and their entry into the world series than Cleveland.

This was apparent in the attitude and actions of Manager Robinson and his men who were in fine fettle after completing their final workout this morning. None of them showed the least sign of anxiety or nervousness, although the few weather that prevailed made several of the players reluctant to pitch a left opening game had been scheduled for today.

"All my players are in good physical condition," said Manager Robinson. "They are full of confidence and expect to win the series from Cleveland, and I feel the same way about it."

Asked if he had decided upon his pitcher for the opening game, Manager Robinson replied: "I expect to pitch a left hander." While this is taken to mean either Marquard or Smith, Robinson said it is understood that the final selection will be made after the warming up practice tomorrow.

After the workout this morning Manager Robinson called his athletes together in the clubhouse for their final important conference before the series. This was to include a discussion of the plan of attack against the Indians and how best to exploit the probable line-up of the teams tomorrow will be presented by Speaker's men.

The fact that Manager Speaker of Cleveland will have to depend upon either Bagby or Coveleskie for the first game makes a difference in the probable lineup of the Brooklyn team. The National League champions during the season have switched only in one position, right field, for different brands of pitching.

With Cleveland it has been a different proposition and while the infield did not change because of opposition pitching, Manager Speaker constantly made changes in his outfield to meet right or left hand pitching as the case might be. With a left hander in the box for Brooklyn it is problematical what Manager Speaker will do in the big game. He has been using George Burns, Joe Wood and Joe Evans, right hand hitters, against left hand pitching, but the combination composed of Speaker, Jameson and Smith represents an outfield of 300 hitters and it is likely they will form the outer defense for the Indians in the game at least.

At least one of the probable line-up of the teams tomorrow will be Cleveland—Jameson if, Wambers 2b, Speaker c, Smith rf, Gardner 3b, Johnston 1b, Sewell ss, O'Neill c, Bagby or Coveleskie.

Brooklyn—Olson ss, Johnston 3b, Griffith rf, Wheat if, Myers c, Konecny 1b, Kliduff 2b, Miller c, Marquard or Smith p.

PENNANT WINNERS FREE FROM CONNECTION WITH SCANDAL

Chicago, Oct. 4.—The Brooklyn and Cleveland baseball clubs, tonight were cleared of any connection with the baseball scandal so far as evidence presented to the Cook county grand jury is concerned.

State's Attorney McWay Hoynes and his assistant, Hartley Replego, who is in charge of the baseball inquiry which has already resulted in the indictment of eight Chicago White Sox players on charges of "throwing" games in last year's series, tonight issued statements declaring that no evidence or testimony in any way implicating any member of the baseball team was received today by the grand jury.

Mr. Hoynes sent a telegram to the New York authorities denying reports that he had gathered evidence during his recent eastern trip which indicated an attempt to bribe the world series contenders this year.

CHICAGO GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, Oct. 4.—All grain prices smashed down today to the lowest level since 1917, impairment of confidence on the part of owners appeared to be largely responsible. The finish in wheat was semi-democratic at 11 1/2 to 1 3/8. Noted decline with December 1.35 to 1.35 1/2 and March 1.31 to 1.31 1/2. Corn lost 4 1/2 to 5c, oats 1 1/2 to 1 1/4 to 1 1/2 to 1 1/4. Provisions 20c to 41c.

Heavy selling from holders found the wheat market with little support except from shorts who were in a position to grab profits. Towards the close, even this prop gave out and values collapsed in great earnest notwithstanding that the pressure to sell had diminished as the day progressed. The unanimity of bearish sentiment was due in considerable degree to gossip that liquidation from rural sources had increased. Besides, export demand seemed to have vanished for the time being, and domestic millers gave no sign of coming to the rescue. On the contrary, one of the biggest flour mills in St. Louis was reported as having closed down for lack of buying orders. Canadian wheat continued to be offered freely, and it was confirmed that actual exports from India had begun.

Big receipts and ideal weather accelerated the decline of corn. Oats sympathized. Provisions, too, grain, were without adequate support.

fore the fury again at his convenience and President Johnson of the American league also is expected to testify later.

Eddie Collins, second baseman and captain of the White Sox, and Ray Schalk, catcher, will be called later. Mr. Replego said. They will be asked whether they believe games were thrown this year and also to discuss technically plays which lost games in last year's series.

The October session of the Cook county grand jury which was sworn in today, was charged by Judge Charles McDonald to "carefully investigate" any information concerning baseball gambling which might come before it. This jury, however, is not expected to conduct a separate inquiry, but will turn over evidence it may gather to the special session of the baseball jury.

Jean Dubuc arrived here today and corroborated the testimony given by him to the grand jury. He said he received a telegram from Hal Chase telling him to bet on Cincinnati and good luck. The "Stuck to the Finish Club," organized among Cleveland rooters to help the Indians to a pennant, gave them a rousing send off.

James C. Dunn, president of the Cleveland club, and Christian Speaker, manager and center fielder, were in charge of the party.

President Dunn, Manager Speakers and the members of the team, expressed confidence that the Cleveland team would win the series.

"If our pitchers hold out, and I think they will, we will win the series," said Speaker. "We have the edge on the Dodgers in hitting and fielding and I don't concede them anything in our first string hitters. They have held their own in one of the closest races in the history of baseball. The team has been going at full speed right down to last Saturday and we won't falter now."

Speaker would not say who would pitch tomorrow for Cleveland. Both Jameson and Bagby are ready and one of the pair probably will be selected.

The Indians' manager expects to give the team a short workout at Ebbets field tomorrow morning to familiarize the men, as far as possible, with the settings of the Brooklyn ground.

The team had a workout and conference at League park this morning. The practice was behind closed gates, the final tryout of the defensive play, cut runners down on imaginary steals, cut runners first string hitters have held their own in one of the closest races in the history of baseball. The team has been going at full speed right down to last Saturday and we won't falter now."

INDIANS, OUT FOR SCALPS, START ON WAR PATH

Cleveland, Oct. 4.—The Cleveland Indians, winners of the American League pennant, left here at 6 o'clock tonight in two private cars for Brooklyn where they will play the first game of the world's championship series with the Dodgers tomorrow. A large crowd of cheering fans gathered at the station to bid the team good bye and good luck. The "Stuck to the Finish Club," organized among Cleveland rooters to help the Indians to a pennant, gave them a rousing send off.

MORNING TO YOU, PETE!

Who crossed my trail in the hotel this afternoon but "Long Sam" Weaver! Last time I saw Sam to chin to was that night of July 15th when our old 38th clinched the "Rock of the Marne" title! And, I guess you won't forget that night, old glue pot—everybody was stuck on you!

Sam and I fought the war all over again and dug into our Camel supplies like it was "free commissary". Sam never will get all done talking about that session when we couldn't move a hair without getting a close shave—and, no cats or smokes!

Sam has some song about how good Camels were to him in France—and ever since! That bird has the warble! Why, Camel talk trickles off his tongue like water flows over Pa Smith's mill dam! Pete, old carpet tack, Sam has a head all right!

"Camels certainly are friendly", was the way Sam put it in his old-time vigor-vim style. "You know as well as I do", he added, "that no other cigarette has such a mild, mellow body. And, there's no harshness or tiredness of taste in a million Camels! No objectionable odor, no lingering unpleasant aftertaste! Summing it all up, Shorty, I'll say, Camels are the greatest cigarettes in the world at any price!"

Headed southeast tonight, with Winston-Salem, N. C. my first port of call. Some jump from K. C. I. Pete, it's Winston-Salem where Camels are made! GET ME!

Scott was an easy winner, going to the front and leading the entire mile. Harry Fleming sprung a surprise the first heat of the Walnut Hall cup when he took Bovola to the front and led all the way. Bovola on the part of Peter Coley on which horse the players pinned their faith spoiled his chances. Though he won the second and fastest heat, Bovola did not win a handy winner in the third and fourth heats.
